

IS JESUS' OFFER DESIRABLE?

Is Easter Unbelievable? // PASTOR TODD DUGARD

April 7, 2024

Jesus is making you an offer...of hope beyond this life...of peace in this life...and of joy at seeing death defeated forever...so, will you choose life or death?

GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

- 1. We know scripturally (Ecc. 3:11b) and instinctively that there is something beyond this life.
 - Why is there such disagreement as to what that "something" is?
 - What will sustain us through the pain and hurt that of this life?
 - Is there greater peace knowing that the offer, "rest for your souls," is given to us by Jesus?
- 2. As believers, through our grief and our torment, we should have the peace of God which surpasses all understanding.
 - Is his peace evident in our lives?
 - Should God only bless in the way we prefer or can anticipate?
 - Do we accept that we are not promised the absence of suffering, but that God instead offers his grace to endure?
- 3. Death is the consequence of humanity's choice to sin.
 - Do you often express your joy to God, and live out that joy knowing he has defeated the curse of death forever?
 - There is nothing and no one that can offer hope, peace, and joy but Jesus...aren't you glad you chose Jesus?
